

KELLY HASN'T MOVED BUT STILL HAS HOPE

COUNCIL BLUFFS DEMONSTRATION PUT OFF.

Railroad People Like the Way the General Acted Yesterday in Refusing to Take a Stolen Ride and There Is Hope That They Will Offer Him a Train.

OMAHA, April 21.—Kelly's army has not moved today. The general now has hopes from the Rock Island road although the officials were obdurate up to yesterday. The general's action in refusing to accept a train captured for him by Omaha workmen has raised him in the estimation of the railroad men. Unless Kelly gets a train this afternoon his action depends upon the reply which is received to the following appeal sent by him to the Omaha Bee:

"Desiring to move eastward as fast as possible, and desiring also to abide by the laws of the land, I am forced to ask, on behalf of the industrial army, for aid in obtaining horses and wagons sufficient to help us across the country, all other means of locomotion having been denied us, save those of nature. I will make this my appeal to the citizens of Iowa and Nebraska. Will you assist us in obtaining this aid?"

GEN. CHARLES T. KELLY.

The departure of the train for the Kelly camp was not the signal for quiet here, but all morning crowds gathered about the streets and moved by hundreds and thousands in the direction of Council Bluffs railroad yards. They were demonstrative but not destructive, and it was not till the arrival of the hospital train that there was any degree of quiet restored. Then the people dispersed to their homes determined to see that the outcome of to-day's battle lies with Gen. Kelly. Gov. Jackson has called out the state militia again, and it is rumored that Gov. Crounse has called the Nebraska troops to this city.

The railroads running into Omaha have demanded protection of their property from further seizure. They have called on Gov. Crounse, Mayor Bemis and Sheriff Drexel for protection. The Omaha guards and the Thurston rifles were ordered to sleep on their arms all night in the barracks. The United States marshal was telegraphed for by the Burlington road and came in on a special car.

Early in the day the battle between the thousands of sympathizers of the industrial leader and the railroad began. Long before noon all the yards in Council Bluffs were destitute of engines and freight cars. The Rock Island and Milwaukee threw their time tables to the winds, the former running its trains into Omaha by way of Plattsmouth, while the Milwaukee did not turn a wheel in Council Bluffs. At Neola, where the Rock Island and Milwaukee connect, 100 feet of the track was torn up and red lanterns hung out as night came on. Early in the evening a detachment of the mob, in which there were several women, captured a Union Pacific switch engine in Council Bluffs. The engine was given two minutes to get out of his cab, but he only needed one. There were several practical railroad men in the crowd and inside of half an hour they had run that engine all over the yards and picked up nine box cars and one caboose. Somebody found a white flag and a red flag and placed them one on each side of the smoke-stack before the start for Weston was made.

The news that a train was coming aroused the men to intense excitement, but any premature demonstration was stopped by Kelly. It was seen that he did not approve of this method of securing transportation and when the "special" steamed into Weston after its run of fourteen miles from Council Bluffs, which was made in the same number of minutes, it was received in silence. The general called his leaders about him and explained that the law must not be violated and the commonwealers could not afford to be regarded as a riotous mob. He said if the impression became general through the country that they failed to regard the property rights of others it would arouse continuous and perhaps armed opposition to their progress.

It was finally decided in this open meeting that the army would not use the train to move forward. There were several expressions of dissent at this, but the general showed his command over the men by refusing to even permit them to sleep in the cars.

The next move of the leader of the industrialists was to make another attempt to come to terms with the Rock Island people to move the men and train forward. An urgent message was sent to President Cable at Chicago asking him to permit the use of his road. For answer came the one word "No." Then Kelly and his leaders held another council and it was decided to put the sick on board the train and send them back to Council Bluffs where they could receive attendance.

The twenty men, who are in a dangerous condition owing to their exposure, were carried from the sheds and barns in which they had been housed. Some of the unruly members of the army tried to climb on board Kelly sent a dozen of his trusted lieutenants through the train and ejected every man who was able to walk. Then he wrote a telegram to an attorney in Council Bluffs asking him if he had the right to use the train to send able-bodied men back into the city. The answer was in the negative, and at 9:59 the train with its sick aboard backed out of Weston and started for Council Bluffs, which it reached forty minutes later.

With the departure of the train Kelly found himself and followers facing a gloomy situation. The commander had voluntarily refused the only chance offered him to ride free. The men were loyal to him, however, and when at 11:30 o'clock he called them together and read his appeal to the Bee he was repeatedly cheered. Orders were issued for the army to be in line at 7:30 this morning for the march for Council Bluffs. Then the men scattered in all directions seeking the shelter of barns and straw stacks. By midnight all except Kelly and his aides had disappeared. They were sitting on the depot platform discussing the situation.

When the "sick train" arrived at Council Bluffs it was greeted by a throng of 5,000 people, who howled their disapproval of the action of the authorities. Half of this mob was composed of laborers from Omaha, who, after parading the streets for a couple of hours started across the big bridge to march to Weston. When they learned that Kelly had given up the train they stopped at Council Bluffs, and on the advice of one of their leaders commenced to scour the railroad yards for cars, which they said they would make into a train and send out to Weston in the morning. They had little success, however, as the roads had secreted all the rolling stock they could. They found two switch engines, but as they were chained to the track they left them. Finally they secured an old engine from which the fires were drawn and after a half an hour's hard hustling for fuel got steam up. Then they rode around for an hour or two, but only succeeded in getting two cars. Finally they gave up the job as a bad one and started back to Omaha.

The Knights of Labor assemblies of Omaha have called a mass meeting for this morning, when an appropriate program will be arranged to be carried out when Kelly's army returns later in the day to Council Bluffs.

WORKMEN'S DEMANDS.

Thousands March to Council Bluffs to Add Weight to Demands.

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—Three thousand laboring men began the march with banners flying bound for the camp of Gen. Kelly at Weston, Iowa, fourteen miles east of Council Bluffs.

Thousands of people followed the column to the bridge and other thousands were on hand on the other side of the river to welcome them. The cold seemed to have the effect of bringing out a greater throng than had been expected last night, when the rain was falling so heavily. All the men seemed to be in excellent spirits and determined that the march should mean business. It is said that some of the anarchists who were in the column marching out of Omaha had some dynamite with them, but how much is not known.

The column had been preceded to Council Bluffs by a committee of prominent citizens appointed at the meeting of the Central Labor union, including Rev. Dr. Joseph T. Duryea, pastor of the First Congregational church; Rev. Dr. Hammerson of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. Frank Crane of the First Methodist church. The committee was to call on Gov. Jackson and the managers of the railroads and urge that the commonwealers be at once started on their way east.

While the column was marching toward the Missouri Gen. Kelly was in Omaha seated in the private car of President St. John of the Rock Island road holding an animated conference. Mr. St. John said in response to a request for a train that he was not in a position to grant it even should he desire to do so, as the matter was now wholly in the hands of the presidents of the Iowa trunk lines, and no one road could grant a request for a train unless the presidents of all the other lines agreed. Gen. Kelly then left the car and called on other friends for advice. One prominent man suggested that the army levy on the farmers for horses and wagons, that the army be split up into squads of 100 men each, and that they spread out over a stretch of territory twenty-five miles wide and march on foot across the state. It was suggested that such a plan would soon bring the people of the state to time, for the army would practically devastate the country through which it passed and the railroads would then be forced to take the commonwealers up and carry them out of the country. Gen. Kelly said the plan seemed to him a good one and he thought it might be tried. He agreed to call a council of his officers and place the plan before them. After deliberation, if they agreed to it, the plan would be adopted. The general left for Council Bluffs at 11 o'clock.

Gen. Kelly came over to Council Bluffs with the intention of catching a train for Weston, being desirous of getting out of the city before the outpouring from Omaha, as he said, he was in nowise responsible for the demonstration and did not want to be even a party to it. While waiting for a saddle-horse his presence was learned by Gov. Jackson, who sent for him for the purpose of imparting some information which he thought would be of interest. Kelly hurried over to the governor's headquarters, where were gathered several citizens, besides the attorney-general, Gov. Jackson declared he had taken every means possible to get the army on its way.

PICKS LAID DOWN IN MANY MINES.

GREAT ARMY OF COLLIERS ARE ON A STRIKE.

Within a Week there May Be 300,000 Men Out—Indiana Block Miners Will Remain at Work—Situation Through Illinois Is Regarded As Very Serious.

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—Reports received at the headquarters of the National Miners' Union, show that miners all over the country are very generally quitting work. Indiana men will stay until May 1 and will then quit in a body. President John McBride has figures on the number of men who will go out in the four days beginning this morning, based on official information. This estimate is that 132,000 men will strike, as follows:

Pennsylvania, 50,000; Ohio, 26,000; Illinois, 15,000; Iowa, 5,000; West Virginia, 6,000; Maryland, 3,000; Indiana, 5,000; Tennessee and Kentucky, 5,000; Missouri, 3,000; Alabama, 8,000; Colorado, 4,000; Indian Territory, 2,000.

This number only includes those who have declared their intention of going out. President McBride predicts that within four days from the time the strike begins 20,000 miners in the Pennsylvania coke fields will join the movement, and that 25,000 in southern Illinois, Missouri and Kansas and in block coal districts of Indiana will follow suit. By May 1 it is expected that every bituminous coal miner in the country will have suspended work, and as far as the soft coal mines are concerned, not a ton of coal will be mined until the strike is settled. Fully four-fifths of the soft coal miners go out at noon, and the other fifth will suspend work as soon as their contracts expire, May 1. In the meantime the miners composing this fifth will only make a show of fulfilling their contracts by working one or two days a week.

But the strike is not expected to stop with the bituminous miners. President McBride says he has reason to believe that within two weeks 125,000 anthracite coal miners will join the strike, which will then become universal and embrace 300,000 men. A prominent coal operator who has been carefully watching the trend of events corroborates the opinion of Mr. McBride in this respect. He says the conditions of the coal trade, together with the low wages of the miners, have become such that they can no longer be borne by miners and operators. The fact is that the operators have only one hope, and that is that the universal suspension of work will result in bringing about the understanding that will result in better conditions for the future.

There will be no trouble between the miners and operators of Ohio, who are in full accord and sympathy with the movement. The same will probably be true of all the states except Pennsylvania. The indications are that bloody times may be expected there as usual.

ILLINOIS MINERS WILL QUIT.

Five Thousand Men in The State Will Join in the Strike.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 21.—Nearly 3,000 miners and company men in this vicinity will quit work at noon to-day. If the La Salle, Peru, and Oglesby miners decide to come out, and they no doubt will follow Springfield, Teatonsville, Ladd, and Laceyville, there will be nearly 7,000 men on strike. The contracts do not expire till May 1.

DUQUOIN, Ill., April 21.—The miners here, numbering about 1,000, are determined to stay out rather than submit to any reduction in wages.

PANA, Ill., April 21.—There is no prospect for a strike, as the majority of the miners, citizens and business men are against it.

MURKINSBORO, Ill., April 21.—There is no present probability of a strike among the coal miners in Jackson county. The miners in this locality have no grievance and are opposed to striking.

MINONK, Ill., April 21.—The miners at this place claim they are in good shape to stand a strike and will stand by any action taken by the district organization.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 21.—The miners of this district are under contract to work until May 1. They will forfeit their unpaid earnings if they join in any strike before that time. The men seem to favor the strike.

DANVILLE, Ill., April 21.—The miners here will not strike until their organization, and a meeting for that purpose will be held Sunday morning. It is said upon pretty good authority that the miners here will not come out under any circumstances until the miners at Brazil, Ind., quit work.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., April 21.—From present indications the miners' strike will not affect the collieries in this county or its vicinity.

MAY CAUSE THE STRIKE TO FAIL.

Indiana Miners Refuse to Quit Work Until Their Contracts Expire.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 21.—Indiana block coal miners have decided not to quit work to-day. They are under contract until May 1. Secretary Kennedy fears the refusal of the Indiana miners to go out will be a fatal blow to the hopes of the miners in both Ohio and Illinois.

BRAZIL, Ind., April 21.—The block coal miners have voted to continue work.

GREAT NORTHERN IN A PECK OF WOE.

MATTERS HAVE NOT IMPROVED SINCE YESTERDAY.

Strikers Still Hold the Upper Hand and United States Deputies Are At a Discount—Warrants Are Out For Strikers and a Conference Has Been Arranged.

ST. PAUL, April 21.—There has been no change in the Great Northern strike today. The storm center is still at St. Cloud. Yesterday United States deputy marshals were interfered with and the restraining order of the United States court violently resisted, trains being stopped as on the previous day of the big strike. There are now in that immediate vicinity between fifteen and twenty United States deputies, and Marshal Bede started for that place yesterday morning with an additional force. Warrants have been sworn against ten strikers active in opposing and threatening the deputies, and these warrants will be served to-day, when trouble may ensue.

The other point of particular interest in the proposed conference in this city. The full correspondence between President Hill of the Great Northern and President Debs and Vice-President Howard of the American Railway union was printed to-day. Mr. Hill did not in the correspondence recognize the union, but he specifically explained in a letter later that "the company is ready to receive the men in its employ or their representatives." This includes all men on the company's payrolls. The company can have no knowledge as to who will represent its employees, except as they themselves will designate. This correspondence makes certain an early conference, but more can not be said, and in the meantime the company is assisted by the United States deputy marshals serving the restraining order of the United States circuit court.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 21.—Both the great Northern strikers and local officials are waiting for developments at the other end of the line. The strikers have complete possession of the telegraph lines and the operators refuse to talk with anybody unless he can give the countersign. They are running a little associated press of their own, sending strike news from the local newspapers to points all along the line as far west as Spokane.

LABOR RULES TRADE.

Improvement in Business Due to the Will of Workers.

NEW YORK, April 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly report says:

"New orders for future distribution are still materially restricted by uncertainty about action at Washington and about the extent and outcome of labor difficulties. Most of the recovery realized in business has been made possible by the consent of workers to accept lower wages for a time, and if they insist on restoration of wages before consumption has restored prices many works must stop. The great strike threatened by bituminous coal miners, and strikes of associated employees on some railroads, make the future less hopeful. Exports of gold had some influence, and continuing loss in earnings some. Earnings for April thus far decrease 13.4 per cent, against 14.1 in February and 13.14 in March. Demoralization of lake freights already diverts much bulky east-bound tonnage from the railroads, though the movement of other merchandise is well sustained. The failures of the last week have been somewhat more important than usual and were 219 in the United States, against 186 last year, and 45 in Canada, against 22 last year. For the first half of April liabilities reported have been $4,168,416, of which $2,082,550 were of manufacturing and $1,904,367 of trading concerns."

$430,000 FIRE AT ST. LOUIS.

Crown Linseed Oil Works Destroyed Yesterday Afternoon.

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—Fire yesterday in the Crown Linseed Oil works of the National Linseed Oil company, located at Sixteenth and Clark avenue, destroyed the entire plant of valuable machinery and buildings. The works have been closed nearly ever since they were bought by the linseed oil trust, but the loss on the machinery and buildings will be $400,000, about three-quarters insured.

SMALL POX CLOSES THE SCHOOLS

Two In Chicago Shut Up Because of the Disease.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Two of the public schools were closed today because of small pox. ST. PAUL, April 20.—The municipal and state boards of health are actively at work to prevent smallpox suspects entering this city from Chicago or elsewhere. A conference has been called of the health authorities of the states of Minnesota, Illinois and Wisconsin, to be held in Chicago. Dr. Charles N. Hewitt of the state board will notify all railroads entering Minnesota they will be held responsible for expenses incurred by the importation by them of persons afflicted with this disease. Local authorities have agreed that the twin cities shall at once provide for an inspection of all passengers on all trains entering the two cities.

HARRISON ON HIS WAY HOME

E-Ex-President Returns From His Winter in California.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Ex President Harrison passed through today en route for home. He has been spending the winter in California.

DELAY IN APPROPRIATION BILL.

Congressman Cannon of Illinois Proves a Stumbling Block in the House.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—There is a prospect that the path of the appropriation bills pending in the house may not be as easy as congressional leaders have expected. Representative Cannon of Illinois has been asking questions on the various items of the diplomatic and consular bill, so that instead of being passed in an hour and a half, as was anticipated, it has been a center of contention for three legislative days. The plan has been to get the bills out of the way at an early day so that the house might hold the senate to account for delays in the tariff revision and could also take up public bills other than for appropriations. However, Mr. Cannon's course, if applied to the other bills, will extend the debate for some weeks, as the routine of going in and out of the committee of the whole consumes much time.

GATHER AT WASHINGTON.

Opponents of the Wilson Tariff Bill at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Representatives of labor organizations identified with manufacturing industries of the east, who fear that the passage of the proposed measure will deprive them of means of earning a livelihood, are gathering in this city for the purpose of making a demonstration against tariff reduction. The movement originated before Christmas and is participated in by the Workingmen's Protective Tariff association of Germantown, Pa.; the Workingmen's Protective Tariff league and similar organizations of Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York, Boston and Pittsburgh. Among the promoters of the demonstration are Wharton Barker of Philadelphia, T. V. Powderly, ex-general master workman of the Knights of Labor, and A. W. Wright, Canadian member of the executive board of the Knights of Labor.

Voorhees' Monster Report.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The report which Mr. Voorhees, chairman of the finance committee, laid before the senate the other day, will, when printed, prove to be the most extensive "working edition" of a tariff bill ever prepared. Only 200 copies are to be issued for use in debate. The document is of regular bill size, and contains in type indicating their differences, the text of four tariff measures—the present law (McKinley) and the administration act of 1890, the Mills bill of 1888, the Wilson bill as it passed the house, and the senate committee changes.

Sitting Bull Bills Unpassed.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Mr. Baker of New Hampshire has offered in the house a bill for the relief of Jean Louis Legare of the Dominion of Canada. The measure appropriates $13,412 for full compensation to Mr. Legare for services rendered and money expended in bringing into the United States and procuring the surrender of Sitting Bull and his followers under direction of the war department. The committee on claims takes an adverse view of the claim.

Closer Classification of Patents.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The establishment of a new division in the patent office, to be known as the classification division, is recommended by Secretary Hoke Smith. The expense will aggregate about $64,590, and it will consist of forty-four skilled examiners and eight clerks and assistants. Patent Commissioner Seymour urges the establishment of the division.

Senator Hill May Vote Nay.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Senators Hill and Murphy are said to have told an intimate friend that if the income tax feature is retained in the tariff bill they will vote against the whole measure. They added that he might place the utmost reliance in their statement and govern himself accordingly.

Brewery Men in Session.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 20.—A meeting of the national assembly of brewery workmen is being held here with delegates present from nearly all the brewing cities. Very little business of importance has been transacted so far except that the constitution has been changed.

CADWALLADER SAYS HE WAS HONEST.

TAKES THE STAND IN HIS OWN DEFENSE.

Dapper Little Financier Explains How Two People Without a Cent of Capital Could Start a Bank—His Cashier Made Things Look Pretty Black For Him.

MADISON, April 21.—Banker A. A. Cadwallader took the stand in his own defense today. His explanation of the manner of starting a bank without a cent of capital was plausible, but hardly offset the story told by his Superior cashier, young J. J. Halliwell. Halliwell went from Philadelphia to be cashier of Cadwallader's bank. He testified that every transaction of the bank with Cadwallader personally was entered on the books, unless it be the $60,000 from a New York bank. The books, he said, were correctly kept, and there were no false entries. He had no experience in banking before going to Superior, but was salesman for a large stationery firm which sold stationery to the bank of which Cadwallader was cashier. Cadwallader spoke to him about starting a bank at Superior with a capital of $500,000, and he thought $1,000,000 capital was mentioned over. Cadwallader asked him if he would like to be cashier at a salary of $5,000 a year and the proposition struck him favorably. He was then receiving a salary of $1,500 he said. It did not strike him as difficult for two young men, neither of whom had more than a few hundred dollars, to start a bank with a capital stock of $500,000 provided they could get the necessary subscriptions.

CAPITOL STEPS BARRED TO COXEY

He Will Not Be Allowed to Hold a Meeting There.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The senate committee on rules was in consultation to-day with Chief of Police Moore and Sergeant-at-Arms Bright of the senate concerning the prospective arrival of Coxe and his followers and other organizations of the same character reported to be on their way to Washington to influence legislation. Col. Bright said: "Mr. Coxe will not be permitted to hold his contemplated meeting on the steps of the capitol. That is against the law. My policy will be to grant the Coxeites all the liberty that is granted to all other citizens by the law and to protect them in the enjoyment of all proper privileges."

The Peffer resolution for the appointment of a reception committee for Coxe's army of the commonweal came up in the senate yesterday. Senator Hawley criticised Senator Allen for his reference to the commonweal army as "the people." These men who were coming here did not represent the general views of the American people; they were not coming with the intention of prostrating themselves at the feet of congress, but to impress them by their presence. The speech of the senator from Nebraska, he said, was such as would be received with applause by a gang of anarchists, and it would not require a microscope to discover in it the microbes and bacilli of anarchism. Senator Allen was about to reply, but 1 o'clock having arrived the resolution went over without action.

WOULD WRECK A CAPTIVE TRAIN.

Railroad Men Reiterate Their Statement That They Will Not Carry Kelly.

WESTON, Iowa, April 21.—The railroad official are most bitter in their determination to combat every measure taken to send Kelly's army over their roads. Judge Hubbard made the statement that the road he represents would not hesitate to wreck any train taken by force by the army. It would make no difference what would be the result in human life, the road had a principle at stake. "If they capture one of our trains," he said, "we will first send out two or three engines from the west end to couple on the way-car and pull it back, engine and all. If that fails there will be but one course. We will steam up a wild engine, open the throttle, and send it down to meet the captured train and let the wreck solve the problem as to whether we are obliged to carry these men without remuneration." Judge Hubbard said this in all earnestness, and so far as could be judged he meant every word of it.

A meeting of the citizens of Council Bluffs was held in the offices of Flickinger Bros., and resolutions were adopted bitterly denouncing Judge Hubbard for his published sentiments.

Coxey's Band Pursued by Ill Luck.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., April 21.—Hagerstown did not want Coxe's army and said so with unmistakable plainness. The commonweal tried to get the fair grounds for a camping place, but the trustees flatly refused. They tried several other places without avail. Finally the railroad company gave the weary army the privilege of camping on a vacant plot of ground near the tracks. Then the augmented police force of Hagerstown drew up before the camp and announced that any man other than staff officers found outside the grounds would be arrested. A heavy rain storm added to the discomfort. Coxe has left for New York. Hagerstown has been too thoroughly worked by Smith to have much left for Coxe.

NEW COUNCIL NAMES
OFFICERS FOR '94

ballot resulted in a unanimous vote for C. B. Conrad. A formal ballot for assessor for the west side resulted in the election of Henry Hemming, he receiving seven votes to three cast for E. H. Davies.

A formal ballot was taken for president of the council, resulting in the election of Alderman C. D. Child, he receiving eight votes to one cast for F. S. Baines and one for Ed. Smith.

On motion of Alderman McLean, the council proceeded to ballot for health officer, as follows: Dr. O. P. Robinson getting five votes and Dr. James Gibson five. The second ballot resulted the same. The third and fourth ballots gave Dr. Robinson five, Dr. Gibson three and Dr. E. W. Edden two. When the fourth ballot was announced Alderman McLean moved that the election of health officer be deferred until some future meeting, which was adopted.

On motion of Alderman Child, Patrick Riley was elected janitor for the ensuing year, at the same salary as formerly.

Gazette Made the Official Paper.

Alderman Smith moved that the Janesville Recorder be designated as the official paper of the city. Alderman Child offered as a substitute that the Janesville Gazette be the official paper of the city. Alderman Child's substitute was adopted by the following vote: Ayes—Aldermen Child, Heddles, Rich, Sutherland, Winslow, 5. Noes—Aldermen Baines, Cunningham, Kothman, McLean, Smith—5.

It being a tie vote Mayor Thoroughgood voted aye, and declared the substitute adopted.

On motion of Alderman McLean the first regular meeting of the council was fixed for Monday evening, April 23, and on each alternate Monday evening.

While the election of health officer was pending, and four ballots had been announced, Mayor Thoroughgood inquired of the city attorney: "I see that the common council consists of the mayor and two aldermen from each ward. Now I would like to know why I have no vote on questions of this kind? If I have a vote I can settle this matter quickly."

Alderman Baines—We are all aware of that.

City Attorney McElroy informed the mayor that he could vote on certain questions in case of a tie, but could not vote on the election of a city officer or agent.

Assistant State's Attorney and Principal Counsel for the Prosecution in the Recent Trial in Chicago of Daniel Coughlin for the Alleged Murder of Dr. Cronin. He was born in Norwich, Conn., July 24, 1855.

THE LATE MR. FORD.

He Owned the Theater in Which Lincoln Was Assassinated.

John T. Ford, the veteran theatrical manager and proprietor of Ford's Grand opera house, died suddenly at his home, 1536 North Gilmor street, Baltimore, Md., Wednesday, March 14. His death was due to the after effects of la grippe, from which he suffered about two months ago. He had been confined to the house for about one month, but was apparently progressing favorably, and his death was a sad surprise, not only to the entire community, but to the members of his household. John Thomson Ford was born in the city of Baltimore April 16, 1829, and was educated in the public schools of that city, together with one year's tuition at Mount Hope college. At the age of 10 years he went to work in a grocery store in his native city. In 1844 he went to Richmond, Va., and became apprenticed to his maternal uncle, William Greanor, a tobacco manufacturer, with whom he continued for three years, when he started a newspaper and periodical store in a small way. While engaged in this business he wrote a successful local farce for the Nightingale Minstrels, then in Richmond, and this afterward led to him becoming business manager for that company. He left Richmond for Baltimore in the early part of 1850, and in the succeeding winter he began his professional career with the "Nightingales" at the old Masonic temple on Chestnut street, Philadelphia. He remained in minstrel management for about four years, visiting all the cities east of the Mississippi river. In the season of 1854-55 Mr. Ford formed a partnership with George Kunkel and Thomas Moxley in the leasing of the Holiday street theater, in Baltimore, and the Richmond theater, Messrs. Kunkel and Moxley taking charge of the Richmond end of the enterprise and Mr. Ford of the Baltimore end. Mr. Ford's maternal grandmother had been associated with the Holiday street theater when Warren & Wood first became its managers, fifty years previously. He continued in the management until his death. He also owned the old Ford theater, Washington, D. C., famous as the house in which J. Wilkes Booth shot President Lincoln.

To Miss Agnes Thomas.

I'm not a gusher, you'll admit;
You've but to search our files
To see how rarely I have writ
For "Thank you" and for smiles
A girl is bad: I tell her so—
I think it only right.
I have in mind where people go
Who swear that black is white.
A girl is good: I say she's good—
I tell her then and there.
Of course, 'tis only right I should—
A critic must be fair;
As honest as the very deuce,
And true to duty's call.
Unless he is, he's little use,
If any use at all.
I hate to gush—I loathe to write
A lot I do not mean.
I argue that if black is white,
Then crimson must be green.

It does no good. If you were red
(Impossible, 'tis true),
I don't think you would like it said,
Miss T., that you were blue!
I'm not a gusher, you'll admit—
You've but our files to see
To find how seldom 'tis I sit
To puff a C. B. G.
A girl is bad: I say she's bad—
I tell her; and for why?
A critic is a beastly cad
Who'd tell a girl a lie!
I'm not a barrel, Agnes T.,
With eulogies on tap.
The actress who has praise from me
Has earned it, every scrap!
Believe me, then, no eyes I wink,
My lip it is not curled
When writing this in pen and ink:
Of actresses you are I think,
The finest in the world!
—The Call Boy, in London Judy.

Not Hasty.

"So you proposed to Miss Jingle-gilt?"
"Yes."
"And she refused you?"
"Yes."
"Perhaps it was a hasty answer."
"No. She took care that it shouldn't be. She sent it by a messenger boy."

The Cucumber a Bee Plant.
In Florida the cucumber is regarded as an excellent bee plant. It is said bees favor it, and that the honey prepared from cucumber flowers is of first-class quality. Cucumber pollen is also said to be a favorite with the honey bee.

G.A.R. NOTICE

We take this opportunity of informing our subscribers that the new Commissioner of Pensions has been appointed. He is an old soldier, and we believe that soldiers and their heirs will receive justice at his hands. We do not anticipate that there will be any radical changes in the administration of pension affairs under the new regime.

We would advise, however, that U. S. soldiers, sailors, and their heirs, take steps to make application at once, if they have not already done so, in order to secure the benefit of the early filing of their claims in case there should be any future pension legislation. Such legislation is seldom retroactive. Therefore it is of great importance that applications be filed in the department at the earliest possible date.

If U. S. soldiers, or their widows, children, or parents desire information in regard to pension matters, they should write to the Press Claims Company at Washington, D. C., and they will prepare and send the necessary application, if they find them entitled under the numerous laws enacted for their benefit. Address:

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

De Giers, the Russian Premier.

The maintenance of the peace of Europe is no doubt a very difficult and ticklish business. At present it is a game of diplomatic chess, and even those who know the rules cannot venture to predict the outcome. M. de Giers, the Russian premier, appears to hold the leading hand. He may reasonably be supposed to have learned all about the game in the 74 years of his life and the 56 years of his active service in Russian diplomacy. His skill even while serving in subordinate positions contributed not a little to the advancement of Russian interests in various directions, and since he succeeded Gortchakof in 1892 Europe has found him a powerful factor.

PREMIER DE GIERS.

JAMES A. FATHERS,
City Treasurer.

Dated, April 21, 1894.

Dead Tramps in a Wreck.

VASSAR, Mich., April 21.—A bad wreck occurred on the Bay City division of the Michigan Central railroad at 4 o'clock this morning, by which two men were killed and another fatally injured. Three tramps were riding on a flat car and two of them named Brown and Dalabo were instantly killed. James Cook was taken out alive, but will die. None of the tramps were injured.

Fired on the Superintendent.

OMAHA, Neb., April 20.—A telegram from Weston says Harry Fox, superintendent of the Rock Island railroad, while sitting in the depot, was shot at. The bullet missed his head about three inches. It is not known who did the shooting.

The ladies of the English royal family have a fad which thus far is all their own. All, including, it is said, the queen herself, beguile the hours by plaiting straw for the fabrication of hats to be presented to their sons and husbands.

GIMLETS AS FIRE ESCAPES.

They Also Come in Handy as Clothes Hooks and Window Bolts.

A short time ago a modest little lady entered a hardware store and asked to be shown some gimlets, says Hardware Goods. They were brought forth and placed upon the counter for her inspection. "Young man are you not aware of the new use I make of these little boring machines?" she remarked to the salesman. She continued: "Some years ago I was in a hotel in the town of B. I engaged board and room for one week. The second night my room was entered and my valuables consisting of one mileage book and a few dollars, were confiscated by some unworthy scoundrel, who had gained an entrance with a skeleton key. I concluded that if I was to associate with that class of people while there I had better prevent their visiting my room again while asleep. After informing the proprietor at breakfast I concluded to visit the hardware store, which, by the way, was a combination store, selling everything, from potatoes to a keg of nails. After carefully looking over his stock I purchased three gimlets. That night I fastened the window by boring through the sash into the frame, leaving the gimlet in. Also the transom and door. I retired for the night feeling as secure as could be.

"After having been asleep two hours or more I heard the cry of 'Fire! Fire!' Jumping out of bed, my first thought was escape. Without waiting to arrange my toilet I grabbed the door, pulled the gimlet, turned the key and opened it part way, when I was blinded by smoke. Closing the door again, I thought to escape by the window route. Raising the window I found I would have to jump from the second story. Once more my thoughts came to my assistance. Gimlets! Gimlets! Where are my gimlets? Picking up two of them that I had previously removed I bored them into the window frame under the sill. Taking a clothes line from my trunk I tied it to both of them, threw the rope out of the window and climbed, out and began to descend, and safely reached the ground amid the loud cheers of those that saw me. I tell you young man, I shall never forget that experience, and I owe my life to two gimlets and a clothes line. Now, I want these for any such emergencies as I have mentioned. Please pick me out one-quarter dozen rather small. Those I want to use for coat and hat hooks. Sometimes I stay over night where the room has no wardrobe or nails to hang my garments on, so I bore them into the casing for that purpose, thereby keeping everything hung up. There are numerous other things they can be used for, but I have not time to talk further, and it is train time. How much? Twenty cents? Thank you. Good day."

China's One Railway.

China has at least one complete railway. It is a short line connecting Tien-tsin with Shan-hai-kwan, a town in the eastern part of the great Chinese wall, where the latter runs down to the gulf of Liau-tung. There is a certain anachronism in the association of the "iron horse," so emblematic of our modern celerity of communication, with the Chinese wall, which stands as the personification of obstruction to free intercourse. However, this new Chinese railroad is itself an anomaly; it is not intended for traffic. It will carry neither merchandise nor passengers. Having been built simply for strategic purposes, it will be strictly confined to military uses. The sedan chair will continue to be the vehicle for overland journeys in China, and freight will still be carried slung to poles borne on the shoulders of muscular Chinese porters.

WORKED TWO STORES AND WERE JAILED.

PAIR OF SHARPERS CAUGHT BY CHIEF ACHESON.

A Young Woman Tried Bostwick's Store and Mrs. Sadler's Millinery Establishment But Was Arrested With Her Companion Before She Could Get Out of Town.

Chief Acheson captured a clever pair of crooks at the St. Paul depot at noon today.

Both of them had been working the business houses of the city during the forenoon.

The pair sailed under the names of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tompson, of Freeport, but when cornered at the jail gave their names as Geo. Baltzer and Miss Emma Lashall, of Freeport. They were not married, but said they were going to get married.

At J. M. Bostwick & Son's they purchased a nine dollar cloak and a pair of gloves, telling Mr. Bostwick that they were employed at the school for the blind, but could not pay for the goods until pay day, about May 1. They were given the goods, but Mr. Bostwick telephoned the school for the blind and was informed that no such parties were on the pay roll.

Got Millinery on Tick.

They visited Mrs. Sadler's millinery store, telling the same story, and got credit for a six dollar hat.

At Lloyd's shoe store the same game was worked for a two dollar pair of shoes.

Chief Acheson was informed of the work and at once commenced a search. He entered the St. Paul depot just as the pair entered from the opposite door. They told the chief that they were in the employ of Mrs. Little, at the school for the blind. This was enough, and they were taken to jail.

Big Trunks to Be Opened.

At the jail they told the chief that they went from Freeport to Monroe, and thence to this city this morning, expecting to obtain work with Mrs. Little being informed by a Freeport lady that Mrs. Little would employ them.

Chief Acheson secured the checks and keys to three large traveling trunks. The trunks will be opened this evening and perhaps a rich find will be the result, disclosing plunder secured in other places.

COSTS BIGGER THAN THE VERDICT
Burdick-Collins Case At Last Ended By a Verdict.

Costs are a great deal heavier than the price of all the tobacco involved in the Burdick-Collins case. The jury returned a verdict last evening in the municipal court, finding for the plaintiff, fixing the amount at $40. The verdict carries with it the costs, there having been a trial before an Edgerton justice as well as two trials in the municipal court. The expenses are far above the entire amount involved in the case, something less than fifteen hundred pounds of damaged tobacco. Besides this the defendant must add his attorney's fee, which cannot be a very small amount, considering the time that has been spent.

ARCHES FOR G. A. R. DECORATIONS
Idea That the Committee of Arrangements May Well Consider.

B. H. Baldwin and E. B. Heimstreet are the committee from the Grand Army Post on decorations, and here is a nut for that committee to crack:

Why not erect an arch on Main and Milwaukee streets and another on River and Milwaukee streets; and one near the Grand Hotel?

There are plenty of poles already in position, and handsome arches, of flags and bunting could be easily put up, and would make a fine showing in the streets.

Hats and Handkerchiefs.

Holmes' handkerchief and hat sale is proving a wonderful taker today. All day long people have been going in there and buying hats and handkerchiefs at greatly reduced rates. Holmes always does as he advertises. He recently engaged F. H. Zache, one of the best cutters in the state. As a cutter Mr. Zache stands second to none. He has a large acquaintance and will prove a valuable acquisition to Mr. Holmes' establishment. Now is the time to get a new spring suit or overcoat for as a cutter Mr. Zache is perfect.

The great hat and handkerchief sale will continue tonight. Everybody in the city should get fitted out for Sunday.

PAVERS TO BEGIN ON RIVER STREET.

OBJECTIONS OVERCOME BY CHANGE OF PLANS.

Instead of Planks Laid on Stringers, There Will Be Planks Alone For a Foundation and the Cedar Block Will Not Be Tarred—Other Streets Concerned.

After many months of waiting, South River street, from Milwaukee street to Pleasant street, is to be paved with cedar blocks. The order for the work will be presented to the council at its next meeting, and that body will be asked to have the work done at once.

"We have had this paving question under consideration for over a year," said F. C. Burpee this morning. "We have been considering all the objections raised to the specifications prepared by Engineer Bleedorn, and have modified them accordingly. Bleedorn's plans called for a foundation of plank laid on stringers and for the use of tar, not only on the plank, but on the blocks. We now omit the use of tar altogether, and also the stringers, which will materially decrease the expense."

The paving of this section of South River street will wake up the property owners on Main and East Milwaukee streets and renew the agitation for paving at least the business portion of those streets. It may cause a paving boom resulting in the improvement of portions of Court, Bluff, Franklin, Jackson High and Academy streets. Such an improvement would be cause for general celebration.

WOULD-BE JURORS ARE LIABLE.

Fine of $500 For Asking to Be Placed on the List.

"I am hounded almost to death by some of my best friends," said Sheriff Bear today, "they all ask for place as jurors. On nearly every corner some one approaches me with an application to be placed on the jury list. Now they must be very ignorant of the law which makes such solicitation a criminal offense, punishable by a $500 fine, or six months imprisonment in the county jail. These applications come from all classes of people, but I think if it was published these people would desist and not place me in such an embarrassing position. No one who thus solicits a place on a jury is eligible, and I could not, in justice to myself, place their names on the jury list."

A Carpet Cleaning Works to be Opened on Monday of Next Week.

A great burden will be lifted from the mind of the housewife, especially about house cleaning time, in the establishment in Janesville of a carpet cleaning works. Here for a small expense carpets are taken and thoroughly cleaned, spots removed and aired. This establishment, which will be the best in the state, will be ready for business Monday morning. It is located on the third floor of the Holldredge block on North Main street. The cleaning machine is in a room by itself and at the bottom of the machine is a large fan to draw the dust away, thereby airing and cleaning the carpet thoroughly at the same time. The father and son were arrested in this city last week at the request of Sheriff Fairbanks of Iowa, the two going to Charles City without requisition papers to answer the charge against them. The Iowa Citizen, published in Charles City, of April 19, thus explains the matter.

"From stories in circulation during the latter part of last week, Sheriff Fairbanks went to Janesville, Wisconsin, last Saturday, and returned Monday morning with Frank and David Dudley, on a warrant charging them with complicity in the burglary of the store of L. L. Long. After examination the parties were discharged, there being no evidence sufficient to hold them. They were discharged on motion of County Attorney Eggert."

Supervisor Kimball from committee No. 7 reported as follows and moved its adoption:

To the Hon. Board of supervisors of Rock county:

Committee No. 7 beg leave to report the state of progress of the new county asylum and poor house. Your committee made a report which was submitted to your honorable body at the January session of this board. The following is a supplement to the January report. At that time it was expected that the county buildings would be fully completed by April 1st, according to contract. Your committee find now that it will require some two weeks more to complete the work; that by April 15th the building can be occupied.

Heating—The heating plant put in by H. Moore's Co., of Milwaukee, is complete at a total cost of $11,553.13. The contract price of the plant was $10,447; extra for Webster water heater and purifier, double-acting duplex pump (in place of single pump) and sundries as shown in schedule of said firm, $986.13. Rebate of $30 in account of difference of thickness of the boiler, has been made, making a total as above, $11,553.13.

This heating plant, in the opinion of your committee, has been substantially constructed in a workmanlike manner, and as far as can be seen at present, it will fill all the requirements named in specifications. The comparatively mild winter and at times of a full and complete test of the heating capacity of the plant; but from partial tests had at sundry times, your committee are firmly convinced that the plant will heat the building as required in the contract. The contract with aid Moore's Company provides that before final payment is made to them, they are required to execute a bond with good and sufficient sureties; that the plant will meet all requirements, and heat the buildings in a satisfactory manner, said bond to hold good for one year from March 22, 1894. The bond has been given by the said H. Moore's Company, and approved by your committee, and the balance due them, $6,018.13, ordered paid.

To complete the plumbing will require about two weeks. Test of water pipes have been made as the work progressed, so as to provide against and remedy defects, if any should occur. The work so far as complete appears to be properly constructed and carefully put in. The contract price for plumbing was $7,476.75. Mr. Davis has received $3,383.75, leaving a balance due him of $4,093.00. The contract of $3,383.75, with additional bills of extras, the amount of which your committee are unable to give at this time.

Electric lighting—The work on the electric lighting is progressing in a satisfactory manner. The contract price of this plant was $2,152.80. There has been paid on the contract $116 leaving due the Electric Company on completion of the contract $1,936.80. Furnishings—such as lamps, chandeliers, sockets shades etc. were not included in the contract. These will cost not far from $400. The dynamo has been placed in position ready to connect with the engine. A test of its capacity will be made in a few days.

Carpenters and masons—The contractors, Nowlan, Shearer and Peters will require about two weeks to complete their contract. They would have had the buildings finished at least one month earlier had it not been for unavoidable delays caused in part by other contractors, and non-arrival of material when ordered. Your committee believe this work to be well done and substantially complete.

Their contract price was $67,211, contract for ice house $998, total $68,209. They have received on their contracts $53,915.98, due them on contracts $14,293.01. Their bills for extras is estimated at about $2000.

In order to complete the payment of all contracts, bills and etc. consequent on the contractors of the new county buildings, your committee will require an additional sum of about $16000 or as much thereof as may be necessary for this purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

FENNER KIMBALL,
T. R. BAILEY,
HENRY TARRANT,
HENRY A. EGERTON.

Report adopted.

That the hospital association of the city of Janesville be permitted to dedicate the new county asylum and poor house at such time as the trustees of same think proper. That the proceeds of such dedication and entertainment be paid into the treasury of the Janesville hospital association.

Adopted.

Supervisor Vankirk moved that the trustees of the new county asylum be permitted to place the vase returned from the World's fair in the new county buildings.

Carried.

Supervisor Mayhew moved that the board adjourned until 1:30 o'clock p. m.

A Standard Bearer.

In the crusade inaugurated nearly half a century ago against the professional ignorance of the old school of medicine, Hostettler's Stomach Bitters was a standard bearer. Its victories over disease, when the old time specifics proved abortive failures, proved that the pseudo-philosophy which sanctioned the administration of violent remedies where the case required none, which laid down as unalterable rules blood letting, violent purgation, the use of emetics and the employment of corrosives and cumulative poisons in simple cases of liver and malarial complaint, was in fact worst of unphilosophy contrary alike to the laws of true medical science, of hygiene and of common sense. Bitterness, constipation and chills and fever, as now treated by the Bitters, promptly yield where before they obstinately resisted old fashioned medication. So do dyspepsia, rheumatism and kidney complaint—all surely conquerable by this safe and really philosophic remedy.

A circle of graven oak leaves surrounds the shaft about a foot from the top, and short Grecian columns are at each corner about two feet above the foundation stone.

Everybody who has seen The Gazette piano is enthusiastic in its praise. It has a pure ringing tone, and its action is very fine. These qualities are what would be expected of a Shaw piano and The Gazette made no mistake in choosing that instrument.

Friends of contestants show a lively interest in the success of their favorites and votes are coming in rapidly. New subscribers should be reported as fast as secured, but coupons should be tied in bundles of one hundred each and kept until the day the competition closes. Votes have been cast up to date, for the following candidates:

1. Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

2. Cut the ballot out (trimming off the dotted lines.) Write in the name of your candidate and enclose same in an envelope addressed to Bailot Editor, Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

3. Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

We will be square with you, you must be square with us. No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday and start it again Tuesday and claim the premium offered.

The polls will close at 9:00 p. m., June 30, but votes handed in before this will be duly credited. The contest will be conducted strictly "on the square." No partiality or unfair advantage will be taken or allowed in any case.

"PROMOTERS."

The Courts Are Coming to the Rescue of Their Victims.

That large, eloquent and attractive body of men who are known under the generic title of "promoters" have lately had their attention called to the legal aspects of their business by some rather sharp decisions of the courts. Up to this particular time it has always been understood that the promoter who was clever enough to get the money from investors was entitled to all he could secure.

In a general way the promoter is a man who takes hold of some scheme, such as an invention, a gold or silver mine or a brewery, forms a stock company, and induces as many people as he can to put their cash into the enterprise. The cash is supposed to be used to develop the business, and the investors in return get slips of handsomely printed paper, known technically as stock certificates. The amount of money which investors have put into such schemes during the past decade would about wipe out the national debt. Statistics in the matter are not accessible, says the New York Sun, but there is a general belief that the greater part of the money of the investors finds its way, in one fashion or another, into the pockets of the promoters.

At one time the business of promoting American schemes in London reached such a point that the newspapers printed what they called "exposures" of the promoters. Lately in this country people who have been induced to invest in schemes of this character have gone to the courts upon claims of misrepresentation, of criminal mismanagement, and the courts have almost invariably decided in their favor. An order of arrest was issued some time ago for one of the most showy of the New York promoters, and the other day, in Boston, Mrs. Carter obtained a verdict for $1,300 against a promoter who had induced her to go into one of these so-called "sure things." The only sure thing about them, by the way, is the certainty that the promoter will in nine cases out of ten secure the funds.

I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering.

M. E. FRANKSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:

GENTLEMEN:—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures, which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrh Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick plainly, it being held in inches from my ear. Took upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve.

OUR ~~COMPETITORS~~ SQUIRM.

They have our sympathy. We can't do only what we are doing. We own the stuff so dreadful cheap that we haven't the gall to put anything like the regular prices on it. We have found the old saying true "Goods well bought are half sold." All stocks bought at 40 to 60 cents on the dollar must be sold entirely. We are still slaughtering the Hall & Hansen stock. No reserve being made. The stock was largely composed of such goods as the celebrated Jefferson shoes, the Neenah Shoe Co.'s goods and other standard makes. No cheap John stuff. Nothing but the best and the prices are a revelation.

Our 7 Button Wonder $2.48.

HAS PROVEN TO BE A MAGNIFICENT TRADE WINNER.

Our competitors are wild with envy at our success. They can't match us so they seek to poison the public mind with the idea that we are selling you inferior goods. Our constantly increasing trade and the words of encouragement showered upon us by our customers is full compensation for our extraordinary effort to please the public.
